

Job Opportunity - Nursing Program Manager

Under the direction of the Health Director and within the scope of duties, is accountable for the overall management and administration of the Nursing Program. Acts in a management capacity within the organization to provide an in depth understanding and knowledge of community health nursing programs and services. Assists in establishing priorities and setting direction for the ongoing operations so that effective management practices are established and a high quality of services maintained. Provides direct nursing supervision to community health nurses employed by the Society. Liaises with provincial partners and FNIH regarding nursing issues.

Experience and Qualifications

- Baccalaureate Degree in Nursing with a community health focus or diploma in public health or community health nursing
- CRNBC Registration (or eligible to register)
- Immunization Certificate or willingness to obtain within 3 months
- Two to five years' experience working as a Community Health Nurse in a rural/remote setting, preferably in an Aboriginal community setting
- At least 1 year supervisory/management experience
- Knowledgeable regarding cultural competency in professional nursing practice
- Knowledgeable regarding First Nations health and social issues
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Professional development in facilitation and leadership would be an asset
- Valid Driver's License

Salary

Aligned with Nurses Union of BC Salary Levels. TCHSS offers an excellent total compensation package including medical, dental, life insurance and pension plan.

Deadline: Open

Please Submit Resume and Cover Letter to:

Jennie Walker, Health Director
150 North 1st Avenue
Williams Lake, BC V2G 1Y8
Fax: 250-398-9824
www.threecornershealth.org